

EDEN International Conference
(Emerging Diseases in a changing European eNvironment)
10-11-12th May 2010, Montpellier, France

Tentative agenda

A conference on the impact of global changes on the risk of introduction, establishment and spread of Vector-Borne diseases transmitted by Ticks, Rodents, Mosquitoes, Phlebotomes and Culicoides in Europe; with particular emphasis on the use of remote sensing and spatial analysis techniques.

| | Day 1 | Day 2 | Day 3 |
|------------------------|--|---|--|
| | EDEN approach Change detection and modelling | Tick Borne Disease Rodent Borne Disease Malaria | Mosquito Borne Viruses Phlebotome Borne D. Culicoides (Bluetongue) |
| AM1 9h00-10h30 | Registration | Plenary Keynote papers (4x20mn) | Plenary Keynote papers (4x20mn) |
| Coffee break + posters | | | |
| AM2 11h00-12h30 | Plenary EDEN (4x20mn) | Three parallel sessions (3 x 6 x 15 mn) | Three parallel sessions (3 x 6 x 15 mn) |
| Lunch + posters | | | |
| PM1 14h00-15h30 | Plenary CHANGE (4x20mn) | Three parallel sessions (3 x 6 x 15 mn) | Three parallel sessions (3 x 6 x 15 mn) |
| Coffee break + posters | | | |
| PM2 16h00 – 17h30 | Plenary MODEL (4x20mn) | Three parallel sessions (3 x 6 x 15 mn) | Final plenary session (4x20mn) |
| | PRESS CONFERENCE RECEPTION | CONFERENCE DINNER | |